

Haynes Organization of Parents (HOP) Newsletter

November 5, 2019

Hello Haynes families!

As we enter into November, the temperatures begin to cool and the evenings get darker. But all the great HOP events this month will keep you from missing those warmer days.

First off, don't forget to send in your leftover candy this week. THURSDAY is the last day to get our candy to the Wellesley Dental Group's 12th Annual Candy Drive for the Troops. Families are welcome to include a letter or drawing, as a thank you or a friendly hello, to US troops overseas.

Remember to buy your tickets for the HAYNES AUCTION, November 16th. Thank you to Alicia Larkin, Dayna Buckley and our auction team for securing our great new location, 29 Mediterranean!

Also, coming up is the much anticipated FALL BOOK FAIR, November 18-22. Sign up to come in with your child's class during their regular library block or join us on MOVIE NIGHT, Thursday November 21st. BookFair will be open during the entire evening event.

Please watch your inboxes, just in time for gift giving season, for information on HaynesWear ordering.

Looking forward to seeing you many times this month!

Bridget & Emily :)

Big Thanks for Haunted Haynes!

Thank you to Cub Scout PACK 80 for hosting our Pumpkin Carving Tradition last Thursday afternoon on the Haynes Field. The weather was tough to content with, we are lucky the pumpkins didn't blow away in the wind! But those Jack-O-Lanterns came out great!! All the creations from Thursday's event were displayed at the Haynes' front entrance all day on Friday and made a great addition to the Haunted Haynes Event.

Thank you to all our amazing volunteers who helped out with the planning and execution of Haunted Haynes. We had close to 50 parent volunteers and we could not have done it without you! Everyone from the amazing and hardworking HH Committee, led by Jaime Budzienski, Lisa West & Sarah Wilmot, to the last of the clean-up crew Friday night, and everyone in between, THANK YOU!!!
