Haynes Organization of Parents (HOP) Newsletter March 3, 2020

Hello Haynes Families,

Last week, it was an honor to host our artist in residence Bren Bataclan. It was such a special experience for the student to hear about Bren's mission of kindness through art and to learn about his unique creative style. Bren was a welcome presence in our hallways as he cultivated four canvases of original art created by the fifth grade. Additionally, Bren added a welcome display of fun characters and color to the panels surrounding our two water fountains in the main hallway. Please take a moment to visit and view these beautiful new additions to our school. We are especially grateful to the Mass Cultural Council and to the Fifth Grade for helping support Bren's residency at Haynes.

Thank you for your continued support for this year's Fifth Grade Class. School store closes after March 5th. There are still lots of fun items available this Tuesday & Thursday.

Coming up: BINGO NIGHT is THIS Friday, March 6th!! Be sure to get your raffle tickets for the amazing baskets, put together by the Bingo Coordinators, now on display in the front office through Friday. And you will not want to miss this great Haynes community event. Buy your tickets now as they will not be sold at the door.

Looking ahead to May, BookFair will be held the week of May 18th to May 22nd (Please note these dates have changed from what was originally planned). If you are interested in helping coordinate the BookFair in partnership with an established coordinator please let us know at HaynesHOPCoChairs@gmail.com.

We look forward to seeing everyone on Friday!

Multicultural Evening at Haynes

We are looking forward another fun event this year on April 1st, 2020. We hope to have even more cultures and countries represented.

Please join us for this fun, free, cultural evening at Haynes!

To make it a successful community event we need the support of our diverse Haynes family of parents, students and teachers.

Come share your cultural heritage with the Haynes community! We have a several countries already signed up and look forward to having as many as possible!

This fun filled evening is an opportunity for all of us to learn and experience new music, new food and new facts. Children will enjoy their virtual trip around the world as they visit each booth and learn how rich in diversity our community is.

There are many ways you can help:

- Host a booth: pick a country you want to represent
- Organize a cultural performance by students (musical instrument, singing, dance or a skit) to share your culture
- Bring a favorite food or treat from the country you are representing

This event is coming to Haynes on April 1st, 2020 from 6 pm – 8 pm. Please reach out to us by March 6th, 2020 to get involved.

Please email :

Ando Family Fundraising Event

As most of you are aware Yoshitaka Ando, Lincoln-Sudbury's beloved athletic trainer, coach and friend for 33 years, passed away in December leaving his wife (Cheri) and 4 children (Lucas 17, Kyle 16, Marcus 14, and Olivia 9).

Ando's Army, a group of dedicated volunteers, are halfway to their fundraising goal. To help meet this goal, we hope that you can join many parents of present and former athletes, LS alumni and friends at the Ando Fund Auction Gala on Saturday, March 14 at Charter Oak. There will be both a live and silent auction featuring amazing vacation packages, camp experiences, youth sport memberships, portrait sittings, local restaurants and much much more. If you are able to attend, please purchase your tickets ASAP. Purchase Auction Gala tickets using this link.

If you have any questions please email Andosarmymail@gmail.com Ando gave so much to the Sudbury and Lincoln communities and our children. It is our turn to give back to his family.

Thank you for your time,
Ando's Army
